The Mountaineer 1932

Annual Publication of the
Senior Class of Weaver College
Weaverville, North Carolina

Volume X

Foreword

Now, as the present year draws to its close, we, the staff, have completed our mission. In this, the 1932 edition of THE MOUNTAINEER, we present to you our bit towards preserving this happy year in the pleasant archives of memory.

When we have been tossed about by the waves of life's tumultuous sea and have striven in vain to reach the harbor of tranquillity, then may we be lighted by the beacon in the lighthouse of this literary attainment, and eventually arrive at that degree of happiness and contentment which marks the close of a bitterly fought struggle.

We have found it pleasant, indeed, to render our humble services in the endeavor to leave a fitting remembrance of many happy moments spent among the glories and traditions of our beloved Alma Mater.

We only hope that you derive as much enjoyment from reading this result of our labor as we have received in the undertaking. We wish you Godspeed. Selah!

IN MEMORIAM

"To the glorious memory of Weaver,
We lift up our voices in praise.
Though it grieves us immensely to leave her,
We shall forever remember those days.

When the storms of life rage around us,
And we strive for contentment and rest,
Then memory invariably will find us,
At Weaver College, the Dearest and Best."

—THE STAFF.

Dedication

To Miss Lucile Smith, who has endeared herself to us by her many kind words of encouragement in moments of duress, and by the many lovable qualities that go to make her one of the most beloved women on the campus, we respectfully dedicate this, the 1932 issue of THE MOUNTAINEER.

College Song

THE BLACK AND GOLD

The Weaver Banner flames across
The sunset's golden glow,
As darkness flings her somber shade
About the world below,
So join our hearts in glad acclaim
To Weaver true and bold;
So join our lives as one to thee,
As join the Black and Gold.

Oh! Weaver true, in years to come
We'll ne'er forget thy name;
And through the Carolina hills shall ring
Thy everlasting fame.
Then once again we'll think of thee
And give to thee our praise.
When we recall our golden youth
And happy early days.

Chorus

Then Weaver fair, we'll sing to thee
And raise our voices high,
In praise of all we hold so dear,
Our college near the sky.

—HOWARD PARKER TALMAN.

Being quite clever, he would.

CONNIE LEE HEAD

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Most Melancholy

Euterpean Literary Society, '31-'32, Vice-President, '31; Euterpean Program Committee, '31.

A quiet, modest chap is Kemp Tunis;
If he gradua'es it will quite ruin us.
Oh! what would befall us
If he didn't call us?
We'd sleep on through breakfast, my goodness!

Best All Round Boy—Most Athletic Boy

Delphian; Football, '31; Basketball, '31-'32; Baseball, '31-'32; Chemistry Laboratory Assistant, '32; Monogram Club, '31-'32.

A football player of great ability,

If this stuff's a mess
When it goes to the press,
Blame Robert, not us, hot ziggity.

All the boys stand about,
"Hey, 'Horsey,' when do we eat?"

FRED LYDA

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Most Bashful Boy

Delphian Literary Society; Football, '30-'31-'32; Baseball, '30-'31-'32; Monogram Club.

An all around fellow was Fred
Much of and about him may be said.
One form of expression,

Wonder if it all came out of his head?

And my, how he's rating,
This whimsical fellow, Jack Brown.

A rare type of girl is dear Milly;
She makes all of us seem so silly.
For one of her smiles
We'd walk miles and miles;
Camels just aren't in it, eh, Milly?

MILLER WARD

MONON, IND.

Delphian Literary Society, '32; Weaver Pep Staff, '32.

Up from the foothills came Ottis.
Oh see what Santa Claus brought us,
Whose Y. M. C. A. talks
To us sound like squawks,
In spite of them we're for you, Ottis.

A. J. CARR
WALLACE, N. C.

Most Friendly

Delphian Literary Society; Chaplain Delphians, '29; President and Vice-President Delphians, '30.

An on-rushing torrent, "Red Carr,"

Now Simpson's a chap about grown
Whom the girls simply won't leave alone.
When he learns that cosmetics
Can't mix with athletics,
A better baseball will be thrown.

HUBERT JUSTICE
HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.

Popular—Most in Love

Hubert Justice we now introduce;
We could tell you lots, what's the use?
Just to give you a tip,
He'll soon make a trip,
To an altar we think—Oh the deuce!

PAULA COLSON
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"It"—Campus Flirt

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Intercollegiate Debate, '32; Girls' Glee Club, '31-'32.

A maiden of lovely personality,
With just a touch of rascality.
Just add a rare smile,
Stir well all the while,
And you have Paula there in reality.

A bit of a flapper, Lucile,
Who all the girls' fellows did steal,
As follows: "Red," "Simp," and Howard.
That's all by the law she's allowed;
Believe me, we're sorry, Lucile.

WILLIAM DANIEL GASH

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Clio, Vice-President, '31, Secretary, '31; Member of Tennis Tournament, '31-'32; Debate Council, '31-'32.

Now we've heard of this Danny Gash,
Who, they tell us, is a tennis flash,
He gallops the courts
And all his cohorts
Stand gaping around at young Gash.

MARTHA LOUISE LANGSTON

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play, '31; Basketball, '32.

Martha, a sincere young lass,
On the basketball court showed some class.
Martha's the kind
The boys leave behind,
Then sigh for thereafter, alas!

WOODROW L. HAGUE

COLUMBUS, N. C.

Neatest Boy

Delphian, Vice-President, '31, Critic, '32, Secretary, '32; Glee Club, '32; Baseball, '32; Assistant Superintendent Sunday School, '31.

Here's a young fellow called Hague,
Who on the subject of girls was quite vague;
That is, until he met Beth,
And now we regret,
That everything's girl with young Hague.

MARY ELIZABETH LEE

LAWNDALE, N. C.

Sweetest Girl

Euterpean, President, '32, Vice-President, '31-'32; Secretary Sunday School, '31; Assistant to Dean of Women, '31-'32.

Here's one about Elizabeth Lee,
Not the one who lived down by the sea,
But one nevertheless
Who ranks with the best,
This jolly young miss, Lizzie Lee.

HUBERT H. POWELL

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

Delphians, President, '31, Chaplain, '32; Superintendent Epworth League, '32; Vice-President Senior Class, '32; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '32; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play, '31; Treasurer Sunday School; Wrestling Team, '32.

A lovable fellow is Hubert;
His love of music rivals Franz Schubert;
And when Elsie plays,
He just sits in a daze
Is it the music or Elsie, which, Hubert?

HOWARD GARREN
HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.

Most Likely to Succeed

Clio, President, '31; Vice-President Debate Council, '31; Superintendent Sunday School, '31; President College Senate, '32; Laboratory Assistant Chemistry, '32; Honorary Society.

Now Howard's a likely young chap,
And not one you could call a sap.
He is just what we need,
Voted most likely to succeed,
And we wish him luck to the last lap.

HELEN LOMINAC
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Prettiest Girl

Euterpean Literary Society, '32; Debate Council, '32.

Of a rare kind of beauty was Nell;
The Senior class voted her belle.
Let us hope it will be
That in the future we may see
This lovely young maiden, Miss Nell.

TOM SAWYER
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Clio, President, '32; College Senate, '32; Pre-Medical Club, '32.

We take pleasure in presenting Tom Sawyer,
Who aspires to a doctor's degree,
But take it from me,
A doctor's degree,
Is harder to get than a lawyer's.

LILLIAN ELIZABETH THOMPSON
ANDREWS, N. C.

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Intercollegiate Debate, '31; Debate Council, '31; Reading Contest, '31; Treasurer and Assistant Superintendent Sunday School, '31; Superintendent Epworth League, '32.

A girl to write home about, that's Lillian;
She's one of those girls in a million.
Here is what grieves us:
She's planning to leave us
And go on the stage; now that's Lillian.

BRUCE McCOLLUM
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Clio Literary Society.

A quiet, earnest fellow is Bruce,
Who reminds us somewhat of Il Duce.
Not that he's Politic
Or in the least critic,
Just the way his hair curls. What say, Bruce?

JOHN REAGAN, JR.
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Campus Sheik

Clio Literary Society; Football, '29-'30-'31; Cho-Euterpean Play, '30-'31; College Senate, '30; Laboratory Assistant, '30; Senior Play, '32.

His ambitions lean toward the radio
In which many friends he has madeo.
The stage too, has beckoned,
And John says he reckoned
As how he'll do both; so good dayeo.

MARGARET ZIMMERMAN
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Most Athletic Girl

Mnemosynean, President, '30-'32; Secretary College Council, '31; Basketball, '30-'31; Basketball Coach, '32; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play, '29-'30-'31; Senior Play, '32; Essay Medal, '31.

Now Margaret's a girl of great promise;
Oh, please mister don't take her from us.
Her clever wisecracks
Make up what she lacks,
And that's nothing worth mentioning, believe us.

REESE WALTERS
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Wittiest—Peppiest—Most Original

Delphian Literary Society; MOUNTAINEER Staff, '32; Football, '32; Baseball, '32; Wrestling Team; Glee Club, '32; Senior Play, '32.

A comical fellow, this Reese,
In whose pants you can't find a crease.
From his looks one can see
He's a lion socially.
Tch, tch, what-a-man, this chap Reese.

PAULINE RUNION
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Euterpean Literary Society; Glee Club, '31.

A maiden of delicate mien
And one of the sweetest we've seen.
When she's undulating
We start gravitating
In her direction, you know. What a queen!

HOWARD BAKER
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Most Handsome Boy

Delphian; Baseball, '31-'32; Football, '31-'32; Basketball, '31-'32; Chaplain Delphians, '32; Critic Delphians, '31; Glee Club, '31-'32; Student Council, '31-'32; Boxing Team, '32; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '31.

A basketball player was Bud,
Who shot points when no one else could.
And when Nell was there
From most anywhere,
The ball would go through with a thud.

HENRY L. CREASMAN
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Most Talented

Clio Literary Society; Business Manager MOUNTAINEER, '32.

Henry's the dean of the saxes;
In a chair he sits back and relaxes.
Then we hear such tunes
As to match Vallee's croons,
Ere firemen rush down with their axes.

CHARLES SAMUEL FOX
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Clio Literary Society; Assistant Editor-in-Chief MOUNTAINEER, '32; Glee Club, '32.

A marvelous singer is Sam,
Singing bass as no other can.
He tried singing soprano
And ruined the piano;
It's back to bass notes for yours, Sam.

HARVEY LEROY WILSON
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Cliosophic Literary Society.

You have heard of Harvey, perhaps;
He's the fellow, you know, plays the traps:
The cymbal and snare
With his wild waving hair,
Best illustrates Harvey, Schnaaps!

E. MARVIN HOYLE
CORNELIUS, N. C.

Clio, Chaplain, '31; Vice-President Ministerial Band, '31; Superintendent Sunday School, '32; Vice-President Y. M. C. A., '32; College Senate, '32; President Ministerial Band, '32.

Cornelius has donated Marvin
To help keep the students from starvin!
A likeable fellow
With a heart that's quite mellow,
We thank you, Cornelius, for Marvin.

FRANCES HOYLE
CORNELIUS, N. C.

Euterpean Literary Society, Vice-President, Critic; College Senate, '32; Intercollegiate Debate, '32.

A comely young matron is Frances,
With whom it won't pay to take chances;
But Marvin took one,
And he's just begun
To find what it means, socko, Frances.
